

Service Delivery

EFFECTIVE DATE: JUNE 2026

This page explains, in practical terms, how a NOREN Agency engagement is delivered — from purchase through onboarding to ongoing work — so you know what to expect. NOREN Agency is operated by PK DIGITAL LLC. This information complements our Digital Delivery Policy and Terms of Service.

01 Choosing an engagement

You can purchase a published engagement tier from our Plans page, or agree a custom scope through a private proposal. Pricing for published tiers is listed in GBP on the Plans page; custom scopes are quoted in a proposal.

02 Purchase and confirmation

Engagements are purchased as a one-time, upfront payment through an approved checkout provider (for example, Whop) or by invoice. Once payment is confirmed, we begin onboarding.

03 Onboarding

After purchase, we start onboarding: an intake of your goals, brand assets, and access; a kickoff to align on scope and priorities; and setup of any workspace or client portal provided for your engagement.

04 What you receive

Depending on your tier or scope, deliverables may include strategy and positioning, content and creative direction, distribution and growth support, implementation guidance, reporting, and advisory calls — all provided digitally. The specific deliverables for your engagement are confirmed during onboarding or in your proposal.

05 Cadence and communication

Work proceeds on an agreed cadence with a single point of contact. Some deliverables are one-off; others are iterative within the scope. Reviews and reporting follow the rhythm set for your engagement.

06 What we need from you

Timely delivery depends on your cooperation — providing access, approvals, brand assets, and feedback when needed. Delays in inputs may affect timing.

07 No physical delivery

All delivery is digital. There is no physical product and nothing is shipped.

08 Custom proposals

Custom scopes may vary in deliverables, timing, and structure, as described in your proposal or statement of work.
